

WEBSITE ANNOUNCEMENT FOR POSITION OF CADET

Applications submitted January 1, 2016 to June 30, 2016 - Selection cycle 6009

The Pennsylvania State Police (PSP) is currently accepting applications for State Police Cadet.

The entry-level law enforcement examination for the position of Cadet is periodically administered by the Pennsylvania State Civil Service Commission (SCSC) at its computer-based testing centers. The next written examination is anticipated for August 2016. Anticipated test dates are subject to change.

Applications for the position of Cadet that are received after 11:59 p.m., June 30, 2016 will be held on file for future examinations.

Qualified applicants for the position of PSP Cadet, who submit applications before 11:59 p.m., June 30, 2016, will be notified via email after June 30, 2016, with instructions on how to register with SCSC to take the entry-level law enforcement examination when an examination is scheduled to be administered. Others who attempt to register with SCSC who have not been pre-qualified by PSP will be denied.

Since qualified candidates will receive instructions by email, it is important that contact information is current. To update contact information, candidates may log back into the application using their email address and password.

Questions related to the written examination should be referred to the PSP Bureau of Human Resources, Officer Testing and Placement Division, by email at ra-entrylevelexam@pa.gov.

Applications submitted July 1, 2015 to December 31, 2015 – Selection cycle 6008

The Pennsylvania State Police (PSP) Cadet Written Examinations were administered from February 1, 2016 through February 20, 2016 and have now concluded.

Applicants who completed the written examination process in February 2016, for the position of PSP State Police Cadet, received an examination results notification email on March 10, 2016. Qualified candidates who received instructions to self-schedule via the State Civil Service Commission website may begin the self-scheduling process at 9:00 a.m. on March 18, 2016. Pennsylvania State Police Cadet Oral Examinations will be administered April 1-5, 2016. Candidates who completed the written examination in February 2016 and did not receive an examination results notification email are encouraged to notify PSP by email at ra-entrylevelexam@pa.gov.

Candidates, whose contact information has changed since initial application, are encouraged to update contact information to include mailing address, email address, and telephone number, via their online applicant profile. If contact information is not up to date candidates may not receive important future testing information or updates.

Questions regarding the application process may be directed by email to ra-PSPCadetProcess@pa.gov. Questions regarding the testing process which are not answered on the PSP website may be directed by email to ra-entrylevelexam@pa.gov.

Applications submitted January 1, 2015 to June 30, 2015 – Selection cycle 6007

Pennsylvania State Police Cadet Oral Examinations were administered from October 16, 2015 through October 20, 2015 and have now concluded.

Oral Examinations were administered only to those candidates who applied online from January 1, 2015 through June 30, 2015 and achieved a passing score on the Written Test administered from August 10, 2015, to August 29, 2015. Oral examination results and final list rankings notices were emailed on December 2, 2015 to those candidates who participated in the Oral Examination.

The PSP will contact candidates for further processing, in rank order, according to the needs of the Department.

Candidates who participated in the Oral Examination in October 2015 and did not receive an email notification by December 11, 2015 are advised to email ra-entrylevelexam@pa.gov with a message including full name and last four digits of Social Security number. Oral Examination results and final list rankings are not available online. Candidates are advised to check “junk” or “spam” files prior to emailing ra-entrylevelexam@pa.gov.

Candidates whose contact information has changed since initial application, are encouraged to update contact information to include mailing address, email address, and telephone number, via their online applicant profile. If contact information is not up to date candidates may not receive important future testing information or updates.

Questions regarding the application process may be directed by email to ra-PSPCadetProcess@pa.gov. Questions regarding the testing process which are not answered on the PSP website may be directed by email to ra-entrylevelexam@pa.gov.
